Ruby Trial Jury-Picking Chore Starts

DALLAS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Henry M. Wade, questioning the first prospective juror in Jack Ruby's murder trial, said today "we will ask for a verdict of death."

The jury candidate, Hillard M. Stone, an illustrator, said he felt he could vote for the death penalty.

Ruby sat between defense attorneys Melvin Belli and Joe Tonahill. He kept his eyes riveted on Stone. He showed no change of expression when the question of the death penalty came into the hearing.

It was the second day of Ruby's trial.

He is charged with murdering Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

Belli asked that Stone be dismissed for cause after a hot exchange with Dist. Atty. Henry Wade. The judge overruled Belli's motion.

Belli contended that under Texas law any witness to a crime is automatically disqualified as a juror. He cited Article 619.

The prosecution said that the fact of being a witness does not automatically disqualify a person for jury duty.

Belli fought hard to have Stone removed as a potential juror.

He based his argument also on the fact that Wade, offering an objection, said there was no question of the fact that Ruby had killed Oswald.

The defense says it is impossible to get an impartial jury in Dallas.

"Nothing happened this morning to change my opinion about that," said Melvin M. Belli, chief counsel for Ruby, after seeing the first 150 prospective jurors in the courtroom of District Judge Joe B. Brown.

The question of an impartial jury is a pivotal point in the defense of Ruby.

Kennedy was assassinated on Nov. 22, only 210 yards from the scene of the trial. Two days later, in the basement of the Dallas City Hall, Ruby killed Lee Harvey Oswald, who had been charged with murdering the President.

The defense contends Dallas is freighted with prejudice and feelings of guilt. Belli says "the shame brought on the Dallas image" is such that a juror (Continued on Page 2)

Ohio Industrial Loan Program Is Studied by Supreme Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Supreme Court called today for oral arguments in a suit to test Ohio's new industrial loan law.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe brought the action directly in the high court to determine constitutionality of a statute empowering the Ohio Development Financing Commission to issue revenue bonds for such loans.

Larry Snyder, Saxbe's chief counsel, contended in the suit filed last year that the use of public funds raised through a bond issue could not be loaned for promotion of private business ventures under the state constitution.

He cited Section 4, Article VIII, which reads:

"The credit of the state shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to, or in the aid of, any individual association or corporation whatever . . ."

Counsel for the seven member commission, represented by the Cleveland law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, denied that members "have done anything for the benefit of any private corporation for profit . . . except as such a corporation may derive incidental benefits from the exercise of their lawful powers for the purposes of improving opportunities for employment within the state of Ohio."

Commissioners Are: Vance Brand of Woodstock, Austin E. Knowlton of Delaware, Wilbur

D. Fulton of Cleveland, William C. Safford of Cincinnati, Paul E. Humes Jr. of Youngstown, Joseph Thomas of Akron and Milton Knight of Perrysburg.

Commissioners are authorized by the new law to issue bonds and loan proceeds to companies, individuals, community improvement corporations and political subdivisions under various provisions.

Principal and interest payments on bonds would be made from rents, fees and other charges on properties which commissioners are authorized to acquire and improve but cannot operate. They must sell or lease them.

The commission has approved an initial $10 million bond issue and five loans totaling nearly $4 million.

Largest loan was for $3 million to the 106 Memphis Corp., a subsidiary of American Greeting Card Corp., Cleveland.

Others include $250,000 to be T. J. Paisley Co. for a food packaging plant in Medina, $351,000 to Community Improvement Corp. of Jackson, $23,800 to Arco of Toledo, and $275,000 to Technology Co., Inc., Dayton.

Gov. James A. Rhodes has termed the industrial loan law the keystone in his program for opening 200,000 new jobs in Ohio to help cure such social ills as unemployment, poor relief, racial discrimination, school dropouts and juvenile delinquency.

Brown Allows Political foe Spot on Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown certified his Republican opponent, Congressman At-large Robert Taft Jr., today as a candidate for the U.S. senatorial nomination in Ohio's May 5 primary.

Brown, who had withheld certification for a check of petition technicalities, made his ruling after a 30-minute hearing in his Statehouse office.

The hearing followed a protest filed Saturday by Raymond Dennis 42, Columbus restaurant operator. Dennis, a Republican, lodged the protest on grounds that Taft's petitions had been altered.

Brown delayed certification for a check to determine whether changes complied with Ohio law.

He said the place of notarization on petition affidavits was changed from Cuyahoga County to Hamilton County and the date altered from Dec. 6 to Dec. 23, 1963.

State Rep. Robert Reckman of Cincinnati, House majority floor leader, said Taft's petition were in order. Reckman is the congressman's campaign manager.

Monday Brown certified the petitions of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. as a candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

He held up the petitions to look into provisions of the Hatch Act, regulating political activity by federal employees.

One candidate for the senatorial nomination, Democrat Raymond W. Beringer, previously was disqualified.

Louis J. Schwartz of Felicity, Clermont County, failed to qualify as a Republican candidate for nomination to the Ohio Supreme Court term ending Dec. 31, 1966, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today.

Brown said Schwartz lacked the minimum of 1,000 valid signatures on petitions sworn to before a single notary public. The secretary earlier disqualified Raymond W. Beringer of Toledo as a Democratic candidate for the U. S. senatorial nomination.

Ohio Plea for U.S. Fund Is Pressed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Round and round goes Willard P. Dudley, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, in his quest to have federal funds reduced from his agency's budget restored.

Dudley conferred more than an hour with Under Secretary of Labor John F. Henning Monday. He emerged saying Henning had advised him to meet again with Robert Goodwin, administrator of the U. S. Bureau of Employment Security, and W. R. Curtis, Goodwin's Deputy.

Nothing had been resolved, Dudley said after the session with Henning. Rather, the Ohioan conceded that chances looked slim for the $1,111,063 cut in fiscal 1964 operating funds to be restored.

Solons Support Ruling On Congress Districting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reaction among congressmen indicated support today for the Supreme Court ruling that House members should represent equal numbers of people.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and unsuccessful sponsor for 15 years of a bill calling for equality in congressional districts, said he was "happy about the court's momentous decision."

"It is a great step forward in giving the districts fair, equitable and just representation," Celler said.

Rep. Silvio Conte, R-Mass., said: "This has been long coming. I can't see any fault in it."

Analysts at Republican headquarters said the Republicans probably will gain seats in the House as a result of the high court's decision. But Democratic spokesmen said "the majority party is the Democratic party and it cannot but benefit from any move which attempts to give all citizens as close as is practicable" an equal voice in electing House members.

House leaders from both parties blasted a dissenting opinion by Associate Justice John M. Harlan, who argued that the verdict "casts grave doubt on the constitutionality of the House of Representatives."

Harlan said the ruling "places in jeopardy the seats of almost all the members of the present House of Representatives," because only 37 of the 432 present members were elected from districts that conform with the court's ruling.

"It's pretty far-fetched to intimate that actions by the House might prove to be illegal," said Leslie Arends of Illinois, the assistant Republican leader.

"Of course the House is constitutional," asserted Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma.

The court's decision was by a 6-2 vote with Justice Tom Clark concurring on some points and dissenting on others. The majority opinion was by the court's senior associate justice Hugo M. Black.

It concluded: "While it may not be possible to draw congressional districts with mathematical precision, there is no excuse for ignoring our Constitution's plain objective of making equal representation for equal numbers of people the fundamental goal for the House of Representatives."

The specific case before the high tribunal involved Georgia's 5th District, which includes the Atlanta metropolitan area. It has 823,680 persons compared with only 272,154 in the adjoining, rural 9th District.

"We agree with the District Court that the 1931 Georgia apportionment grossly discriminates against voters in the 5th Congressional District," Black's opinion said. "A single congressman represents from two to three times as many 5th District voters as are represented by each of the congressmen from the other Georgia congressional districts."

The high court returned the case to the District Court for further action.

Ohioans Mum On Effect of Court Rule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio officials had little immediate comment today to Monday's Supreme Court decision on congressional redistricting, pending a study of the ruling.

Neither the office of Gov. James A. Rhodes, nor Atty. Gen. William Saxbe would comment now.

Ohio House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, said he would not stand in the way of a redistricting proposal in the next session of the legislature, but that he would not introduce one.

He expressed belief that it would not be an appropriate subject for a special session of the legislature.

Ohio's General Assembly is in sine die adjournment with all pending legislation indefinitely postponed.

A bill to create a 24th congressional district was offered in the last session, but go nowhere. As a result, Ohio continues with a congressman-at-large.

U.S. Tightens Saigon Guard Communist Terror Drive Countered

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Army maintained special guards on American installations in Saigon today to counter a Communist terror campaign that has killed three Americans and wounded more than 50 in the past two nights.

U.S. and Vietnamese officials also set up a Joint Security Council to work for greater safety for the thousands of U.S. servicemen and civilians and their families in the Vietnamese capital.

American military policemen stood guard at schools attended by American children and rode on school buses. U.S. soldiers patrolled other American installations.

Some of the same Vietnamese police strongarm men who were assigned last summer to roughing up Buddhists and Western newsmen were on duty at the American schools along with the U.S. servicemen.

They included Inspector Lam Van Ly, one of Saigon's most feared judo experts and strongarm men under President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime.

About 2,500 American civilians live in Saigon, including military wives and children. The total of Americans in the capital, counting servicemen and officials, is believed to be about 10,000.

U.S. officials denied any consideration was being given to sending civilian dependents back to the United States.

The terrorist campaign continued Monday night with an attack from ambush on three American military men. One was wounded slightly when a grenade was hurled at their car.

Unconfirmed reports said the Viet Cong rebels were circulating leaflets saying "Two Americans a day."

Senator Deplores Raps Filed against CIA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Dodd, D-Conn., says attacks on the Central Intelligence Agency constitute "a highly dangerous pastime because the CIA is one of the essential elements of our security."

In a Senate speech Monday, Dodd asked for an end to what he called "the virtual epidemic of attacks" on the government's top intelligence agency. He said the attacks were unfair and unwarranted.

Ditch Petition Is Before Board for Final Hearing

A final hearing was being conducted today by the Pickaway County Board of Commissioners on a petition calling for improvements of a ditch in Harrison Twp.

The petition concerning Hughes Ditch, was filed June 12 of last year by several property owners in the area. The Commission made an inspection of the area in July of 1963 and conducted an initial hearing in August.

Approximately 14 land owners were on hand for today's session, conducted in the Common Pleas Courtroom. The Commissioners were expected to either approve or reject the petition later today.

Early deliberation indicated the petition would receive approval. Preliminary specifications for the proposed project have already been assembled for study.

APPROPRIATE clearing and grubbing, cleaning the channel and sloping banks, proper leveling of waste material and disposal of brush are being sought in the petition.

Also on hand were Henry McCrady, county engineer, and Don Archer of the local Soil Conservation Service. Both offered advice on contemplated aspects of the project.

McCrady said his main purpose was to present information on how to best get the job done if and when the proposal should

Glenn Aids OU Affair

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio University dedicated a Veterans Memorial Room Monday, with Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. taking part.

Americans must take advantage of their freedom to use imagination and heritage for the nation's betterment, Glenn said. "Our system of government rests on a solid belief in God that lifts us out of ourselves and gives us a belief in something higher," he said.

This was a strictly nonpolitical appearance by the candidate for the Democratic nomination for U. S. senator from Ohio.

Glenn accepted a certificate for his pioneering efforts in the U. S. space program. Medal of Honor holders Melvin Mayfield of Newark and Forrest E. Everhart of Cincinnati also received certificates.

New Cyprus Plan Is OK'd

British, Cypriots To Consult U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Britain and Cyprus are reported agreed on principles for a plan to police the turbulent Mediterranean island with an international force while an impartial mediator seeks peace between the Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

The British-Cypriot plan also calls for a consultative committee of U.N. members.

The two nations reportedly agreed on general terms of a Security Council resolution after the council postponed the start of its debate on the Cyprus crisis until this afternoon.

The resolution would avoid the controversial issue of how the international force should be set up and would merely agree that there should be such a force.

It would also appeal to all countries to respect the territorial integrity of the island, an appeal which Cyprus had planned to propose in a separate resolution.

The council debate, scheduled to start Monday, was postponed after Secretary-General U Thant took a hand in the crisis with peace proposals of his own.

Thant's ideas were handed to representatives of Cyprus, Britain, Turkey, the United States and Greece in a memorandum which dealt with establishment of an international peace force for Cyprus and with machinery for mediating the conflict.

One objective was to find a formula that would be accepted by all parties concerned and thus avoid the risk of a Soviet veto. President Makarios of Cyprus has indicated he would accept no peace force unless it was under control of the Security Council.

Economizers Near Showdown on Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State economists appear headed for a showdown in efforts to avert another deficiency in public school subsidies.

Various estimates of spending beyond the amount appropriated for the school foundation program range from $8 to $10 million for the calendar year.

The issue appears to be whether the State School Board and the Education Department must operate within appropriations or whether the legislature must appropriate to cover overspending.

Legislative leaders and finance officials plan to huddle over the question before the next meeting of the Controlling Board this month.

Finance Director Richard Krabach met school foundation payments of more than $120 million for the last half of 1963 on time without incurring a deficit.

But his office looks on a $66.2 million quarterly payment due this month with a jaundiced eye. Estimates indicate that release of that sum by the Controlling Board would signal a deficiency of about $2 million by mid-year.

Ohio Industrial Loan Program Is Studied by Supreme Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Supreme Court called today for oral arguments in a suit to test Ohio's new industrial loan law.

Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe brought the action directly in the high court to determine constitutionality of a statute empowering the Ohio Development Financing Commission to issue revenue bonds for such loans. Larry Snyder, Saxbe's chief counsel, contended in the suit filed last year that the use of public funds raised through a bond issue could not be loaned for promotion of private business ventures under the state constitution.

He cited Section 4, Article VIII, which reads:

"The credit of the state shall not, in any manner, be given or loaned to, or in the aid of, any individual association or corporation whatever . . ."

Counsel for the seven member commission, represented by the Cleveland law firm of Squire, Sanders & Dempsey, denied that members "have done anything for the benefit of any private corporation for profit . . . except as such a corporation may derive incidental benefits from the exercise of their lawful powers for the purposes of improving opportunities for employment within the state of Ohio."

D. Fulton of Cleveland, William C. Safford of Cincinnati, Paul E. Humes Jr. of Youngstown, Joseph Thomas of Akron and Milton Knight of Perrysburg.

Commissioners are authorized by the new law to issue bonds and loan proceeds to companies, individuals, community improvement corporations and political subdivisions under various provisions.

Principal and interest payments on bonds would be made from rents, fees and other charges on properties which commissioners are authorized to acquire and improve but cannot operate. They must sell or lease them.

The commission has approved an initial $10 million bond issue and five loans totaling nearly $4 million.

Largest loan was for $3 million to the 106 Memphis Corp., a subsidiary of American Greeting Card Corp., Cleveland.

Others include $250,000 to be T. J. Paisley Co. for a food packaging plant in Medina, $351,000 to Community Improvement Corp. of Jackson, $23,800 to Arco of Toledo, and $275,000 to Technology Co., Inc., Dayton.

Gov. James A. Rhodes has termed the industrial loan law the keystone in his program for opening 200,000 new jobs in Ohio to help cure such social ills as unemployment, poor relief, racial discrimination, school dropouts and juvenile delinquency.

Brown Allows Political Foe Spot on Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown certified his Republican opponent, Congressman At-large Robert Taft Jr., today as a candidate for the U.S. senatorial nomination in Ohio's May 5 primary.

State Rep. Robert Reckman of Cincinnati, House majority floor leader, said Taft's petition was in order. Reckman is the congressman's campaign manager.

Monday Brown certified the petitions of Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. as a candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

He held up the petitions to look into provisions of the Hatch Act, regulating political activity by federal employees.

One candidate for the senatorial nomination, Democrat Raymond W. Beringer, previously was disqualified.

Louis J. Schwartz of Felicity, Clermont County, failed to qualify as a Republican candidate for nomination to the Ohio Supreme Court term ending Dec. 31, 1966, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today.

Brown said Schwartz lacked the minimum of 1,000 valid signatures on petitions sworn to before a single notary public. The secretary earlier disqualified Raymond W. Beringer of Toledo as a Democratic candidate for the U. S. senatorial nomination.

Ohio Plea for U.S. Fund Is Pressed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Round and round goes Willard P. Dudley, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, in his quest to have federal funds reduced from his agency's budget restored.

Dudley conferred more than an hour with Under Secretary of Labor John F. Henning Monday. He emerged saying Henning had advised him to meet again with Robert Goodwin, administrator of the U.S. Bureau of Employment Security, and W. R. Curtis, Goodwin's Deputy.

Nothing had been resolved, Dudley said after the session with Henning. Rather, the Ohioan conceded that chances looked slim for the $1,111,063 cut in fiscal 1964 operating funds to be restored.

New Cyprus Plan Is OK'd

British, Cypriots To Consult U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP)—Britain and Cyprus are reported agreed on principles for a plan to police the turbulent Mediterranean island with an international force while an impartial mediator seeks peace between the Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

The British-Cypriot plan also calls for a consultative committee of U.N. members.

The two nations reportedly agreed on general terms of a Security Council resolution after the council postponed the start of its debate on the Cyprus crisis until this afternoon.

The resolution would avoid the controversial issue of how the international force should be set up and would merely agree that there should be such a force.

It would also appeal to all countries to respect the territorial integrity of the island, an appeal which Cyprus had planned to propose in a separate resolution.

The council debate, scheduled to start Monday, was postponed after Secretary-General U Thant took a hand in the crisis with peace proposals of his own.

That's ideas were handed to representatives of Cyprus, Britain, Turkey, the United States and Greece in a memorandum which dealt with establishment of an international peace force for Cyprus and with machinery for mediating the conflict.

One objective was to find a formula that would be accepted by all parties concerned and thus avoid the risk of a Soviet veto. President Makarios of Cyprus has indicated he would accept no peace force unless it was under control of the Security Council.

Air Search Continues

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Civil Air Patrol said it would continue a search over Northern Ohio for some trace of a twin-engine plane that disappeared Saturday with four persons aboard.

Tax Cut To Be Effective Quickly after Passage

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate House conferees on the tax cut bill have made sure the nation's wage and salary earners will get the benefit of the reductions at the earliest possible moment.

They agreed Monday to accept a Senate provision which will make the new lower withholding rates in the bill effective with pay checks delivered eight days after the measure is signed into law.

This was a victory for the administration, which has been pressing to have the effects of the tax cut felt in the economy as soon as possible.

Some companies have notified Congress it will be difficult to make the change in their pay rolls within a week.

The conferees resume their closed sessions early today in an effort to complete action on the 400-page bill this afternoon.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., head of the House group and the conference chairman, told newsmen it was decided at Monday's session to announce only the decision on the effective date for the cut in withholding.

The conference Monday succeeded in getting through about half of the 208 changes made by the Senate in the House bill. Many major differences were put aside for later decision.

It was understood they agreed tentatively to continue to allow deductions for state gasoline taxes. The House had voted to eliminate these as a deduction, but the Senate version reversed this.

In its final form, the bill is expected to provide individual and corporate tax cuts totaling about $11.5 billion a year. Cuts for most individuals will average about 19 per cent.

Solons Support Ruling On Congress Districting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reaction among congressmen indicated support today for the Supreme Court ruling that House members should represent equal numbers of people.

Rep. Emanuel Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and unsuccessful sponsor for 15 years of a bill calling for equality in congressional districts, said he was "happy about the court's momentous decision."

"It is a great step forward in giving the districts fair, equitable and just representation," Celler said.

Rep. Silvio Conte, R-Mass., said: "This has been long coming. I can't see any fault in it."

Analysts at Republican headquarters said the Republicans probably will gain seats in the House as a result of the high court's decision. But Democratic spokesmen said "the majority party is the Democratic party and it cannot but benefit from any move which attempts to give all citizens as close as is practicable" an equal voice in electing House members.

House leaders from both parties blasted a dissenting opinion by Associate Justice John M. Harlan, who argued that the verdict "casts grave doubt on the constitutionality of the House of Representatives."

Harlan said the ruling "places in jeopardy the seats of almost all the members of the present House of Representatives," because only 37 of the 432 present members were elected from districts that conform with the court's ruling.

"It's pretty far-fetched to intimate that actions by the House might prove to be illegal," said Leslie Arends of Illinois, the assistant Republican leader.

"Of course the House is constitutional," asserted Democratic Leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma.

The court's decision was by a 6-2 vote with Justice Tom Clark concurring on some points and dissenting on others. The majority opinion was by the court's senior associate justice Hugo M. Black.

It concluded: "While it may not be possible to draw congressional districts with mathematical precision, there is no excuse for ignoring our Constitution's plain objective of making equal representation for equal numbers of people the fundamental goal for the House of Representatives."

The specific case before the high tribunal involved Georgia's 5th District, which includes the Atlanta metropolitan area. It has 823,680 persons compared with only 272,154 in the adjoining 9th District.

"We agree with the District Court that the 1931 Georgia apportionment grossly discriminates against voters in the 5th Congressional District," Black's opinion said. "A single congressman represents from two to three times as many 5th District voters as are represented by each of the congressmen from the other Georgia congressional districts."

The high court returned the case to the District Court for further action.

Ohioans Mum On Effect of Court Rule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio officials had little immediate comment today to Monday's Supreme Court decision on congressional redistricting, pending a study of the ruling.

Neither the office of Gov. James A. Rhodes, nor Atty. Gen. William Saxbe would comment now.

Ohio House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, said he would not stand in the way of a redistricting proposal in the next session of the legislature, but that he would not introduce one.

He expressed belief that it would not be an appropriate subject for a special session of the legislature.

Ohio's General Assembly is in sine die adjournment with all pending legislation indefinitely postponed.

A bill to create a 24th congressional district was offered in the last session, but go nowhere. As a result, Ohio continues with a congressman-at-large.

U.S. Tightens Saigon Guard

Communist Terror Drive Countered

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The U.S. Army maintained special guards on American installations in Saigon today to counter a Communist terror campaign that has killed three Americans and wounded more than 50 in the past two nights.

U.S. and Vietnamese officials also set up a Joint Security Council to work for greater safety for the thousands of U.S. servicemen and civilians and their families in the Vietnamese capital.

American military policemen stood guard at schools attended by American children and rode on school buses. U.S. soldiers patrolled other American installations.

Some of the same Vietnamese police strongarm men who were assigned last summer to roughing up Buddhists and Western newsmen were on duty at the American schools along with the U.S. servicemen.

They included Inspector Lam Van Ly, one of Saigon's most feared judo experts and strongarm men under President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime.

About 2,500 American civilians live in Saigon, including military wives and children. The total of Americans in the capital, counting servicemen and officials, is believed to be about 10,000.

U.S. officials denied any consideration was being given to sending civilian dependents back to the United States.

The terrorist campaign continued Monday night with an attack from ambush on three American military men. One was wounded slightly when a grenade was hurled at their car. Unconfirmed reports said the Viet Cong rebels were circulating leaflets saying "Two Americans a day."

Senator Deplores Raps Filed against CIA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Dodd, D-Conn., says attacks on the Central Intelligence Agency constitute "a highly dangerous pastime because the CIA is one of the essential elements of our security."

In a Senate speech Monday, Dodd asked for an end to what he called "the virtual epidemic of attacks" on the government's top intelligence agency. He said the attacks were unfair and unwarranted.

Snow-Rain Mix Heads for Ohio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain splashed areas in the South and the far Northwest and light snow fell in scattered northern sections but generally fair and dry weather prevailed in most other parts of the nation today.

A disturbance in the northern Gulf region set off rain from eastern sections of the southern plains through Georgia. Fairly heavy rain, measuring more than one inch, hit southeastern Louisiana and southern Mississippi. The rain was expected to spread through the Carolinas, the central Appalachians, with rain mixed with snow in the Ohio Valley.

"We agree with the District Court that the 1931 Georgia apportionment grossly discriminates against voters in the 5th Congressional District," Black's opinion said. "A single congressman represents from two to three times as many 5th District voters as are represented by each of the congressmen from the other Georgia congressional districts."

The high court returned the case to the District Court for further action.

Economizers Near Showdown on Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State economizers appear headed for a showdown in efforts to avert another deficiency in public school subsidies.

Various estimates of spending beyond the amount appropriated for the school foundation program range from $8 to $10 million for the calendar year.

The issue appears to be whether the State School Board and the Education Department must operate within appropriations or whether the legislature must appropriate to cover overspending.

Legislative leaders and finance officials plan to huddle over the question before the next meeting of the Controlling Board this month.

Finance Director Richard Krabach met school foundation payments of more than $120 million for the last half of 1963 on time without incurring a deficit.

But his office looks on a $66.2 million quarterly payment due this month with a jaundiced eye. Estimates indicate that release of that sum by the Controlling Board would signal a deficiency of about $2 million by mid-year and quadruple that amount later.

Spending contemplated by the Education Department and the School Board is blamed for the red ink outlook. Data processing disclosed the situation in advance for the first time, officials explained.

The legislature took care to spell out the foundation program designed to provide a minimum standard of education for public school pupils.

But lawmakers left the door open for the School Board to prescribe for extended services. Those services include such things as summer activities and the hiring of teachers to direct them, driver training, counseling, slow learner aid and other special units.

Such increases possibly could reach 25 per cent, officials asserted.

Past deficiencies have been made up by the legislature. The total last session was nearly $2.5 million for the state's two-year bookkeeping period.

The 1957 deficiency ran $21 million. Although there was none in 1961, deficiencies aggregated $5.5 million in 1959 and 1955. Expenditures for schools in the 1962-63 biennium ran about $467.7 million, including the most recent deficiency.

The 1963 legislature appropriated $510.5 million for the 1964-65 biennium but finance officials express concern over plans of the School Board to spend more. Figures showed appropriations up 25.8 per cent but the 2.1 million pupil enrollment up only 15.4 per cent.

Conferences before Controlling Board action on release of school funds are aimed at some sort of hold-the-line compromise, it appeared.

Stock Mart Is Uneven

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved unevenly early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Having made record highs in some averages at the close Monday, the market seemed to be stalled and was again feeling its way along.

Changes of most key stocks were fractional.

A gust of profit taking struck the cigar manufacturers which have been rising for about a month, since the surgeon general's report on smoking. Cigarette issues were fairly steady on balance.

Savings-and-loan holding companies continued to rise but their gains were narrow. Airlines were active but narrowly mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .1 at 294.8 with industrials off .3, rails off .1 and utilities up .2.

Ruby Trial

"would be obligated to convict Jack Ruby of murder with malice (a capital offense) to prove that Dallas is a place of law and order."

Belli, an urbane, gray-haired San Franciscan, wants the trial moved to a city at least 200 miles from Dallas.

Nine hundred prospective jurors are available for questioning on their qualifications. Questioning begins with Mrs. C.C. Cherry, Hilliard M. Stone, and J.E. Saunders.

Belli and the district attorney, Henry M. Wade, each will have 15 peremptory challenges with which they can reject a prospective juror without stating a reason.

Each side also has an unlimited number of challenges "for cause." In this instance, the attorney must state his reason for not wanting a person on the jury. The judge decides whether the reason is valid.

Ruby's defense is temporary insanity — the assertion that he suffers from "psychomotor epilepsy," and that grief over Kennedy's death shocked him into an emotional state during which, unwittingly, he killed Oswald.

"This defendant does not have the mental capacity to stand trial," Belli said Monday when he moved for a directed verdict of acquittal.

Judge Brown overruled the motion.

A man carrying a loaded 32-caliber pistol was arrested in the district attorney's office, next door to the courthouse, during the luncheon recess. Sheriff Bill Decker identified him as David Conrad Glass, 39, of Beatty, Ore. He was held on a charge of illegally carrying a weapon.

Decker said Glass "talked incoherently" about the assassination.

Glass mumbled about the slaying of Oswald by Ruby, but Decker said he does not believe Glass intended to shoot Ruby. "I think Glass needs a psychiatric examination," Decker said. "His answers didn't make sense."

OAS Panama Talks Falter

Informants said the OAS group would have remained longer if the United States or Panama had shown any favor for a peace proposal advanced by Juan Plate of Paraguay, chairman of the special inquiry committee. Terms were not disclosed.

Heart Disease Cause of 150 Deaths in '62

Heart and blood vessel diseases cross the threshold of home-after-home in this county taking with it an average of two lives every week of the year.

This, the state's and nation's number one killer, caused 150 deaths in Pickaway County in 1962 (latest statistical summary available), accounting for over half of the total of 299 deaths from all causes. The figures were compiled from the official records of the Division of Vital Statistics, Ohio Department of Health.

"Statistics are cold-blooded facts," Jack E. Linton, chairman of the Heart Fund drive, said. "They can, in no way, describe the tremendous personal suffering, the sorrow that attends a family when a loved one succumbs to one of these diseases."

The heart and blood vessel diseases include heart attack, stroke and other complications of hardening of the arteries, rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease, high blood pressure, inborn heart defects and many other cardiovascular diseases and disorders.

"THESE diseases continue to be the nation's Number 1 killer despite the fact that we have moved ahead steadily in control and prevention," he said. "Indicative of this progress was the announcement last year of a six percent decrease in the cardiovascular death rate among men in the important 45-to-65 age bracket—the most productive years of life," he declared.

The chairman called upon all local residents to help the Heart Association continue and expand its three-part program by supporting the Heart Fund. The annual campaign will continue through Feb. 29, reaching its high point on Heart Sunday (Feb. 23), when volunteers will visit their neighbors to collect gifts and to leave health-guarding information.

Ruby Trial

"would be obligated to convict Jack Ruby of murder with malice (a capital offense) to prove that Dallas is a place of law and order."

Belli, an urbane, gray-haired San Franciscan, wants the trial moved to a city at least 200 miles from Dallas.

Nine hundred prospective jurors are available for questioning on their qualifications. Questioning begins with Mrs. C.C. Cherry, Hilliard M. Stone, and J.E. Saunders.

Belli and the district attorney, Henry M. Wade, each will have 15 peremptory challenges with which they can reject a prospective juror without stating a reason.

Each side also has an unlimited number of challenges "for cause." In this instance, the attorney must state his reason for not wanting a person on the jury. The judge decides whether the reason is valid.

Ruby's defense is temporary insanity — the assertion that he suffers from "psychomotor epilepsy," and that grief over Kennedy's death shocked him into an emotional state during which, unwittingly, he killed Oswald.

"This defendant does not have the mental capacity to stand trial," Belli said Monday when he moved for a directed verdict of acquittal.

Judge Brown overruled the motion. A man carrying a loaded 32-caliber pistol was arrested in the district attorney's office, next door to the courthouse, during the luncheon recess. Sheriff Bill Decker identified him as David Conrad Glass, 39, of Beatty, Ore. He was held on a charge of illegally carrying a weapon.

Decker said Glass "talked incoherently" about the assassination of Kennedy.

Glass mumbled about the slaying of Oswald by Ruby, but Decker said he does not believe Glass intended to shoot Ruby. "I think Glass needs a psychiatric examination," Decker said. "His answers didn't make sense."

Informants said the OAS group would have remained longer if the United States or Panama had shown any favor for a peace proposal advanced by Juan Plate of Paraguay, chairman of the special inquiry committee. Terms were not disclosed.

LOOK MA, NO WOMEN — This may be the motto of the Methodist Men's Club as various members go about preparing for the annual George Washington's Birthday dinner Wednesday. ## Methodist Men Prepare for Annual Dinner

Gordon Fraser and Larry Graham, co-chairmen, announced today that all preparations are in order for the traditional George Washington's Birthday dinner to be held 5:30-7 p. m. Wednesday by the Methodist Men's Club.

The public is invited to the dinner which will be held in the basement of the First Methodist Church. The annual dinner is prepared by the Methodist Men's Club assisted by members' wives.

The menu for the dinner has become a tradition. It will consist of baked ham, green beans, baked potatoes, tossed salad, hot rolls, beverage and cherry pie.

Ervin Leist and A. P. Powell, in charge of the cherry pie department, have confessed "they will not bake them all by themselves." Women of the church have supplied the homemade dessert for many years.

OTHER than the dessert course, the food will be prepared by the kitchen committee under the direction of Richard Plum, Dave Sealock, Boyd Stout and Charles Glitt. Salads and pies will be prepared under the supervision of Roloff Wolford who has handled the department for several years.

Visitors will be greeted by the Rev. Paul Wachs, Ed Wallace and W. Lloyd Sprouse — all members of the reception committee.

Members of the clean-up committee are Frank Marion, Keith Wagner and Jerry Wolford. William Cook is in charge of dining room decorations.

Ticket sales are headed by Charles Radcliff, Jacques Sweeney, John Evans, Thoburn Blaney and E. R. Bennett. The tickets may be purchased from the committee, any member of the Men's Club or at the door on Wednesday.

TV Actress Takes Tour Of Pakistan for Envoys

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Television actress Rosemary DeCamp has just returned home after making a three-month tour of Pakistan for the State Department.

"The trip was a rare and wonderful experience," she commented. "It made me realize how many friends we have abroad. It also made me realize how much has to be done to keep those friends."

The actress said the trip evolved through friendship with an American cultural officer who was stationed in Pakistan. He suggested she could speak to school and theater groups while her husband, Judge John Shidler, could confer with legal officials.

"That was four years ago," she said. "I guess the State Department puts your name in a barrel and waits. By the time the tour was authorized and we got to Pakistan, our friend was transferred."

"I was uneasy at first; the last teaching I had done was 30 years ago at Mills College," she said. "But they made me feel welcome. The Pakistani are a very warm and friendly people."

"They seemed very eager to learn about drama, even though they have very little opportunity to display their talents. There was no language barrier, since most speak English as a hangover from the British days."

"In some plays I had to make concessions for local custom. In 'The Glass Menagerie,' I had to change the kissing scene, since public kissing is just not done. The actor kissed the girl's hand—and even then she pulled her sleeve down so his lips wouldn't touch her skin."

"It was only when we went to East Pakistan that we felt some hostility. There you can see the results of Radio Peking, which floods the area with propaganda."

"It is disheartening to see Russia and China spending 10 times what we spend," she remarked. "There is so much to be done over there, and we just aren't doing it."

Irish Theater Director Here To Laud Old Bard

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sir Tyrone Guthrie, Irish giant of the theater, was in town to say some kind words for an old friend celebrating a birthday.

The old friend is William Shakespeare, born 400 years ago April 23. Guthrie came here as the first speaker in a program for the quadricentennial planned by the UCLA Extension Division, one of many such celebrations in all parts of the world.

Before taking off for other lectures at Berkeley and the Citadel in South Carolina, the famed director of the classics was asked what he thought of this year's to-do for the Bard.

"Oh, I think he'll survive," he replied. "It is a sign of greatness in such figures as Shakespeare and Verdi that they can survive any amount of mauling over the years."

He conceded that the celebration might even do Shakespeare some good, so long as the plays are accepted for their entertainment value and not as literature. He is appalled at how the young are exposed to Shakespeare.

"They should not be allowed to experience him too early," he observed. "High school is all right. But it is better for students not to be exposed at all than to be taught Shakespeare by a dull teacher."

Guthrie was also dubious about movies as a medium for appreciating Shakespeare.

"I thought Larry's (Olivier) 'Henry V' was well done, though more cinematic than Shakespeare," he observed. "But his 'Hamlet' was nonsense. It was ridiculous to say that this is a story of a man who could not make up his mind and then show a kind of Nazi guardsman elbowing everybody aside."

"As for Orson Welles' 'Macbeth,' it was rather a horror, but as with much of Welles' work, a horror with a touch of genius."

Aside from his lectures, Guthrie's contribution to the 1964-1965 celebration will be a staging of "Henry V" at the Tyrone Guthrie Playhouse in Minneapolis.

Guthrie, who rose to fame with his vigorous direction in the Old Vic, the Sadler's Wells and the New York theater, founded the Minneapolis theater last year after despairing of the stultifying economics of Broadway.

Solons Slated To Study U.S. Spending Plan

NEW YORK (AP)—Having about finished with the federal income tax cut, the Congress may consider its task of raising revenue out of the way. Now it can turn to the other side of the federal budget—how to spend the money to be collected or borrowed.

But in neither case can it be in absolute control of these figures.

New tax rates and other revenues should return $93 billion, if everything goes as expected in the next fiscal year.

But if corporate profits expand at a faster rate than predicted, the new 50 per cent income tax rate might bring in more than the old 52 per cent rate did in 1963 earnings. If the unexpected happens and business slumps after midyear, Treasury collections could be off sharply.

The same holds for individual income tax returns. If personal incomes rise as they're supposed to, the new rates will bring the amount the Treasury counts on. If they should suddenly tumble, the Treasury deficit could soar.

It has happened before. Unexpected hard times brought a skimpy receipts and turned a predicted Treasury surplus into a $12 billion deficit in fiscal 1959.

Congress can come closer to determining how much will be spent. But a large part of this, too, is beyond its control, for one reason or another.

Sometimes a sudden economic emergency will cause a rush of new spending to prime the pump. Weather, or foreign politics, can change the cost of the various farm programs.

But a lot of the spending in any one year has already been set by prior government action and by carry-over funds before Congress votes on the new authorizations.

The budget submitted for fiscal 1965, starting July 1, calls for nearly $98 billion of expenditures. The Tax Foundation Inc. asserts that only 30 per cent of this is under effective control of this session of Congress. The nonprofit organization with an avowed leaning toward frugality says that $42 billion to be spent in the next fiscal year is for projects already approved by Congress, with the spending authority carried over from prior years.

Arabs Fear Lady Bird Running U.S.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The newspaper Al Moharrer has urged the Arab world to turn to the Soviet Union and away from the West, and hinted that President Lyndon B. Johnson's wife is virtually running the United States.

It quoted an unnamed "prominent Western source" in Washington as saying Mrs. Johnson was a member of a Zionist, anti-Arab organization and that "it is well known inside higher quarters in the U.S. that Mrs. Johnson practices great influence on the decisions taken by her husband, and that she interferes in every affair, great or small."

"I do not want to endorse what is being said in certain American quarters, namely that the lady at the White House is the one who is running the U.S. now," a translation of the article said, "but it is also wrong to underestimate such talk."

The newspaper is an extreme nationalist daily.

Ohio Dems May Book Banquet According to LBJ's Schedule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic Party leaders in Ohio appear ready to postpone their scheduled fund-raising banquet Feb. 29 so that President Johnson can attend.

Party leaders confide that the President could make this year's political fete one of their biggest ever.

There is speculation that Johnson could attend the banquet, if it were held at a later date, possibly after the May 5 primary.

They assert that Johnson wants to pay an "early" visit in this election year to the state which the late President John F. Kennedy failed to carry in 1960.

The President's personal appearance would put extra zip into the Ohio election campaigns and condition the state for a favorable response to the President's expected candidacy, party leaders believe.

A record throng of about 3,200 turned out for the 1962 fund-raiser at the State Fairgrounds addressed by Kennedy, who said jokingly that Ohio gave him a big welcome but a small vote.

The late president flew in from Washington in bad weather to address the early January affair honoring the 54th birthday of then Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

DiSalle had declared against re-election to push his welfare programs "unencumbered by candidacy." He later ran unsuccessfully.

Dinner in the barn-like Buckeye Building placed various interpretations on Kennedy's visit. Some said the president, grateful for DiSalle's early boost to his first term election campaign, came as a gesture to an old friend.

Others felt Kennedy wanted the governor to accept appointment to a high federal post. Still others saw the visit as impetus for a draft-DiSalle movement.

Kennedy had planned to address this year's Ohio fund-raising banquet, leaders said. His assassination caused postponement of the event. Sponsors now express confidence that Johnson will be the speaker.

Buckeye Democratic organizations already have declared for Johnson for president.

State headquarters fielded a slate of Democratic National Convention delegates pledged to Cuyahoga County Chairman Albert S. Porter of Cleveland as a "favorite son" stand-in for Johnson.

Earlier plans to pledge delegate candidates in the May 5 primary directly to Johnson were changed after the President refused to give his written consent as required by Ohio law.

Word from Washington was to the effect that it was too early for Johnson to indicate his election intentions.

The situation gave Ohio party leaders some problems.

In addition to picking a "favorite son," they were pressed to meet requirements for at least 1,000 valid signatures from not less than 30 counties on petitions of at-large delegates to be elected statewide in the primary.

The Democratic National Committee in a late move allocated Ohio 99 votes in this year's convention. That was a boost of 35 over the 64 votes carried by the 1960 delegation.

Because 58 at-large Buckeye delegates will have only a half-vote each this year, the Ohio delegation will number 128 members, plus 97 alternates.

Two delegates from each of Ohio's 23 congressional districts will have a full vote each for a total of 46. And 24 of the 82 at-large delegates will have a full vote, leaving the other 58 at-large delegates with a half-vote apiece.

To make sure that delegate candidate petitions would qualify, state headquarters circulated about 12,000 petitions. Although only some 8,500 petitions were filed, they had to be trucked into the secretary of state's office.

The task of circulating so many petitions in limited time led State Chairman William L. Coleman to suggest that the legislature might consider revising petition requirements.

Election officials asserted most of the changes advocated by Coleman would require revision of the state constitution, subject to a vote of the people. Revisions were proposed in a bill prepared for consideration in the last legislative session but it was withdrawn after constitutional questions were raised.

Billy Rose Holdings Climb At $9000 per Hour Rate

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Rose always was a fast man with a buck—making it, that is.

Now, at 64, the onetime boy wonder of Broadway is the sensation of the stock market.

The word got around last week that, since Oct. 15, the value of Rose's stock holdings had been increasing by nearly $9,000 an hour. That meant about $4 million.

It was no novelty to Rose. As the result of a stock split some years ago, he made a million dollars in 20 minutes.

Rose is the largest individual stockholder in American Telephone and Telegraph and the New York Central Railroad. His long-term profits in AT&T alone are more than $8 million.

"None of it seems real to me," he said. "The only thing that seems real is the 50-cent piece I have in my pocket."

Is it better to be rich or not rich?

"I think rich is better, but I don't think it's all important."

One thing is, however, important to him at the moment.

"I want to get married again," he said. "I have been married four times to three lovely girls. I like girls."

His wives were the late comedienne Fanny Brice, swim star Eleanor Holm and showgirl Joyce Matthews.

His second marriage to Miss Matthews blew up about a year ago, and since then Rose has been batching in the town house, plus luxurious estates on an island off Connecticut and at Montego Bay, Jamaica, British West Indies.

Rose takes pride in the fact that he has had 11 careers. He lists them in this order.

Songwriter, shorthand expert, nightclub operator, Broadway producer, world's fair impresario (at New York's last one), art collector, theater owner (two in New York), newspaper columnist, real estate operator.

Draft Rejectees Face Special Look

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Selective Service System starts today its program to assist potential draftees who are turned down for military service because of educational deficiencies.

Such rejectees will be referred to employment service offices of the Labor Department, where they will receive special counseling and testing and will be referred either to training programs or to jobs.

The program will be applied initially to 23-year-olds called for induction. After July 1, all 18-year-olds will be tested at the time they register for the draft.

Buckeye Democratic organizations already have declared for Johnson for president. State headquarters fielded a slate of Democratic National Convention delegates pledged to Cuyahoga County Chairman Albert S. Porter of Cleveland as a "favorite son" stand-in for Johnson.

Earlier plans to pledge delegate candidates in the May 5 primary directly to Johnson were changed after the President refused to give his written consent as required by Ohio law. Word from Washington was to the effect that it was too early for Johnson to indicate his election intentions.

The situation gave Ohio party leaders some problems.

In addition to picking a "favorite son," they were pressed to meet requirements for at least 1,000 valid signatures from not less than 30 counties on petitions of at-large delegates to be elected statewide in the primary.

The Democratic National Committee in a late move allocated Ohio 99 votes in this year's convention. That was a boost of 35 over the 64 votes carried by the 1960 delegation.

Because 58 at-large Buckeye delegates will have only a half-vote each this year, the Ohio delegation will number 128 members, plus 97 alternates.

Two delegates from each of Ohio's 23 congressional districts will have a full vote each for a total of 46. And 24 of the 82 at-large delegates will have a full vote, leaving the other 58 at-large delegates with a half-vote apiece.

To make sure that delegate candidate petitions would qualify, state headquarters circulated about 12,000 petitions. Although only some 8,500 petitions were filed, they had to be trucked into the secretary of state's office. The task of circulating so many petitions in limited time led State Chairman William L. Coleman to suggest that the legislature might consider revising petition requirements.

Election officials asserted most of the changes advocated by Coleman would require revision of the state constitution, subject to a vote of the people.

Revisions were proposed in a bill prepared for consideration in the last legislative session but it was withdrawn after constitutional questions were raised.

Billy Rose Holdings Climb At $9000 per Hour Rate

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Rose always was a fast man with a buck—making it, that is.

Now, at 64, the onetime boy wonder of Broadway is the sensation of the stock market.

The word got around last week that, since Oct. 15, the value of Rose's stock holdings had been increasing by nearly $9,000 an hour. That meant about $4 million.

It was no novelty to Rose. As the result of a stock split some years ago, he made a million dollars in 20 minutes.

Rose is the largest individual stockholder in American Telephone and Telegraph and the New York Central Railroad. His long-term profits in AT&T alone are more than $8 million.

"None of it seems real to me," he said. "The only thing that seems real is the 50-cent piece I have in my pocket."

Is it better to be rich or not rich? "I think rich is better, but I don't think it's all important."

One thing is, however, important to him at the moment. "I want to get married again," he said. "I have been married four times to three lovely girls. I like girls."

His wives were the late comedienne Fanny Brice, swimmer Eleanor Holm and showgirl Joyce Matthews.

His second marriage to Miss Matthews blew up about a year ago, and since then Rose has been batching in the town house, plus luxurious estates on an island off Connecticut and at Montego Bay, Jamaica, British West Indies.

Rose takes pride in the fact that he has had 11 careers. He lists them in this order: Songwriter, shorthand expert, nightclub operator, Broadway producer, world's fair impresario (at New York's last one), art collector, theater owner (two in New York), newspaper columnist, real estate operator.

Draft Rejectees Face Special Look

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Selective Service System starts today its program to assist potential draftees who are turned down for military service because of educational deficiencies.

Such rejectees will be referred to employment service offices of the Labor Department, where they will receive special counseling and testing and will be referred either to training programs or to jobs.

The program will be applied initially to 23-year-olds called for induction. After July 1, all 18-year-olds will be tested at the time they register for the draft.

Rural-Urban Event Set by Rotary Club

An annual Rural-Urban observance will highlight this week's meeting of the Circleville Rotary Club.

Rotarians will invite farmer friends to the session. They will gather at the Fairgrounds 4-H and Grange Building at 11:45 a. m.

Guest speaker will be C. Neilson Griffith, vice president in charge of personnel and public relations for Landmark Farm Bureau Co-op. He is a board member of the Ohio Council on Economic Education and has served as administrative assistant to the Ohio Department of Agriculture.

Griffith is past coordinator of the Ohio Department of Agriculture laboratories at Reynoldsburg. He is a past master of the F&AM, York Rite, Scottish Rite and an elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Leap Year Ammunition

Young lady, have you despaired of trapping the young man of your choice into marriage? Does your cooking not measure up? Aren't you as alluring as in Novak? Well, you might try using statistics.

Studies prove that married men live longer and healthier lives than bachelors. For example, the former are sick less often and stay in hospitals for shorter periods when they are ill. And bachelors have a much higher mortality rate than married men.

For every 1,000 single men between the ages of 25 and 34, there is an average of 3.6 deaths in a year, while the rate for married men is 1.7 deaths. (This may just prove that husbands face up to the challenge of outlasting their wives to keep their hands off the insurance money, through).

This leap year ammunition has been compiled for you girls by the Health Insurance Institute. It's designed to help, but the rest of the campaign is up to you.

Bikini Progress

If Mrs. Marie McCullough isn't careful, she might find herself nominated by acclamation by American males as the ideal chaperone of 1964.

Mrs. McCullough is an Atlantic City businesswoman, a director of the city's Chamber of Commerce, and an officer in the Atlantic City Model Guild. She probably wouldn't have received nationwide attention for her conduct in any of these pursuits, but when she became the champion of the bikini on her city's beaches, WOW!

The bathing beauty as the symbol of fun in the sun is Mrs. McCullough's motto, and the first plank in her platform is the repeal of those "archaic laws" which prohibit girls from appearing on the beach in brief swim attire.

It is probably merely coincidence that Mrs. McCullough's campaign is launched 50 years from the date actress Annette Kellerman paid a fine for prancing around in the sand in a skin-tight, one-piece knit garment that covered her from shoulder to ankle.

But Mrs. McCullough cannot deny some progress has been made in the years since that shocking demonstration of immodesty.

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—The chicken war could be succeeded by a steel war.

American and European steel producers are at odds over imports and tariffs. And the dispute may become one of the sorest when a new round of international tariff cutting talks starts in Geneva in May.

Increased tariffs by the European Common Market on American frozen chickens caused the hottest friction last year.

American steel executives today are telling a U.S. Tariff Commission hearing of their complaints against a rising flow of foreign steel into U.S. markets. They also are asking measures to broaden the export business for American steel mills.

The European Coal and Steel Community already has acted. Saturday it raised its tariffs on imports of low-priced steel and cast iron.

The community—the six Common Market nations—also reports a big upsurge in orders for its steel mills. It says most of the orders are coming from within the Common Market—West Germany, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Steel producers outside the Common Market aren't happy that the duties are being raised against them—to an average of 9 per cent.

American producers haven't been happy that European steel export prices have been lower than the prices charged Common Market consumers—or the prices of American steel products here.

But with the rise in demand in Europe, the six nations may find less need to export—and to maintain lower prices to do so. And already export prices of some European steel products have risen above charges of a year ago.

While the European steel mills are enjoying something of a boom in new orders, so are the American. U.S. mills are raising their estimates of industry shipment in the first three months of this year to more than 19 million tons. This compares with 17 million in the final three months of 1963 and 18 million tons in the first quarter of last year.

The American mills' export-import troubles are outlined to the Tariff Commission today by John P. Roche, president of the American Iron & Steel Institute.

He says steel imports here in 1963 climbed to a record 5.5 million tons, while exports of U.S. steel have been stalemated at 2 million tons, or only about half of the average in 1953-57.

Roche holds that loss of world markets, plus rising imports here, has meant that some 40,000 steel workers were deprived of more than $300 million in wages and salaries.

American steel makers are urging U.S. negotiators at the Geneva meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to fight for tariffs that will equalize prices of American and foreign made steel.

THE NEW MAID had been working in a manner of speaking, for two weeks and since she had shown no response to instructions, threats, or cajolery, Mrs. Bach decided to try sarcasm on her.

"Do you know, Maymie," she said, "that man was created from dust?" "Yes'm," said Maymie. "And that when people die they turn back into dust?" "Yes'm," said Maymie. "Well," said Mrs. Bach forcefully, "I looked under the parlor rug this morning, Maymie, and there's quite a crowd there either coming or going!"

Alcohol, apparently, is not a good mixer. The combination of alcohol and automobiles, for example, is definitely known to be dangerous and, all too frequently, a deadly mixture.

It has now been found that alcohol is a particularly bad mixer with any of the sleeping pills that contain barbiturates. Apparently, even a few drinks of rye, Scotch or gin, when followed by a moderate dose of barbiturates, have produced serious illness and even death.

Dr. Elmer V. Dahl, working in conjunction with a biochemist, Jack E. Wallace, at the Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, is investigating the reasons why the effects of alcohol and barbiturates can be so poisonous to man.

They have found that the barbiturates, when taken after alcohol, interfere with the excretion of alcohol from the body, and tend to affect the important centers of the brain that regulate breathing and the heart rate.

The chemical reasons for this dangerous combination are now being studied intensively. Actually, the chemical findings should not alter too much the intelligent person's determination not to try to mix these two un-mixables—alcohol and barbiturates.

Burns are so frequent an occurrence in the daily running of a household that the newer treatment should be constantly emphasized and remembered.

The immediate application of ice or ice-cold water brings rapid relief of pain. In addition, it has been found that ice is beneficial in healing a burned area.

The hand or arm can be immersed in a basin of cold water until there is definite relief from pain. Ice cubes can be added to the water from time to time in order to keep the temperature comfortably cold.

Running cold water over a burned hand is not as effective as immersing it in cold water. The pressure of the running water can itself produce pain as it flows over the burned area.

If an area of the body cannot be easily immersed in the cold water, application of cold,

Essence of Baloney

By John Chamberlain

For two cents, so I am informed by my friends who read Russian, you can get the Soviet newspaper "Pravda" or "Izvestia" delivered to your post-box in the United States from Moscow. It would, so these same friends say, cost you seventy-five cents if you were living in Russia and hankered for the delivery of an American Newspaper.

Some of the two-cent editions of "Pravda" and "Izvestia" bearing on the Panama and Guantanamo crises have just come to hand. I was curious about them, for I had read reports from Moscow that the Soviets, not wishing to throw any road blocks in the way of such mollifying events as the Disarmament talks at Geneva, were playing the U.S. troubles in Panama down. It turns out that this is pure essence of baloney.

I don't read Russian, but I can read a cartoon as well as anybody. The cartoons on the front pages of the Moscow papers are positively ghastly. One, from "Izvestia" for January 12, depicts a tough American army officer draping a Panamanian flag over seven corpses. In the background there is a ship, presumably moving through the Canal, with a blatant dollar sign on its smokestack. The caption quotes the American military man as saying, "Finally we've found some use for the Panama flag."

Another cartoon, prominently displayed in "Izvestia" for January 15, shows another U.S. soldier, ugly as sin, bestriding the Panama Canal with blood-spattered feet. He is holding aloft a parody of the American flag. The "stars" on the flag are fudged up to look like a cross-hatch of prison bars. The "stripes" carry such words as "aggression", "occupation", "robbery", "blood suppression" and "violation of independence."

If the cartoons hardly breathe a sweet spirit of "detente" or "relaxation of tensions", the "news" stories are worse. They accuse the Yankees of "executing" Panamanian demonstrators. Alongside the stories designed to whip up emotions about Yankee "imperialism", there are editorials and news features attesting to the Soviet preference for gentility in its treatment of its own neighbors. There is a gusher about "two canals." One, the Panama Canal, is run by thugs. The other, a canal connecting the Soviet Union with Finland, is an idyllic waterway, just the place for honeymooners and such.

As for Guantanamo and Castro, there is the front page of "Izvestia" for February 8. It calls the detention of the Cuban fishermen for moving into Florida coastal waters an act of "Piracy". The cartoon is a wonder. The "pirate" depicted therein would make Captain Kidd or Blackbeard cringe and cry "Mama".

Now, none of this is exactly surprising to anyone who has followed the course of events since the Bolshevik Revolution of 1918. What is surprising is that the Soviets can get away with propagating the idea in America that they have decided to be nice to us.

Moreover, it is a truly strange thing that they are willing to mail "Pravda" and "Izvestia" to America so cheaply when they are putting on that Potemkin Village show of "detente" and "relaxation of tensions".

Another bit which I culled, by way of a translator-friend, from a Moscow publication is that the U.S. pays most of the cost of the famous "hot wire." The Soviets pay the rent for the Moscow-Helsinki link in the cable, and 50 per cent of the rent for the Helsinki-London link. The U.S. pays entirely for the Washington-London span, and half of the rent for the link between London and Finland.

Measure this out on a map, and see who is most eager for the "hot wire". And then pray that the Russians won't use the wire to our disadvantage, meanwhile making us foot most of the bill.

I am taking this opportunity to introduce myself as National Engineers' Week chairman for the Southern Ohio Chapter, affiliated with the National Society of Professional Engineers.

Our Society is observing National Engineers' Week in 1964 during the week of Washington's birthday, Feb. 16-22. Our first President was himself a notable engineer.

Our membership is composed of registered professional engineers in all the technical branches. We have 110 members in the Circleville, Wilmington, Washington Court House, and Chillicothe area.

Our chapter strives to live up to the Canon of Ethics for Engineers. The forward on the Canon of Ethics reads: "As the keystone of professional conduct is integrity, the engineer will discharge his duties with fidelity to the public, his employers, and clients, and with fairness and impartiality to all. It is his duty to interest himself in public welfare, and to be ready to apply his special knowledge for the benefit of mankind. He should uphold the honor and dignity of his profession and also avoid association with any enterprise of questionable character. In his dealings with fellow engineers he should be fair and tolerant."

Both President Lyndon B. Johnson and Governor James A. Rhodes have issued proclamations drawing special attention to observance of Engineers Week.

The European Coal and Steel Community already has acted. Saturday it raised its tariffs on imports of low-priced steel and cast iron.

The community—the six Common Market nations—also reports a big upsurge in orders for its steel mills. It says most of the orders are coming from within the Common Market—West Germany, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Steel producers outside the Common Market aren't happy that the duties are being raised against them—to an average of 9 per cent.

American producers haven't been happy that European steel export prices have been lower than the prices charged Common Market consumers—or the prices of American steel products here.

But with the rise in demand in Europe, the six nations may find less need to export—and to maintain lower prices to do so. And already export prices of some European steel products have risen above charges of a year ago.

While the European steel mills are enjoying something of a boom in new orders, so are the American. U.S. mills are raising their estimates of industry shipment in the first three months of this year to more than 19 million tons. This compared with 17 million in the final three months of 1963 and 18 million tons in the first quarter of last year.

The American mills' export-import troubles are outlined in the Tariff Commission today by John P. Roche, president of the American Iron & Steel Institute.

He says steel imports here in 1963 climbed to a record 5.5 million tons, while exports of U.S. steel have been stalemated at 2 million tons, or only about half of the average in 1953-57.

Roche holds that loss of world markets, plus rising imports here, has meant that some 40,000 steel workers were deprived of more than $300 million in wages and salaries.

American steel makers are urging U.S. negotiators at the Geneva meeting of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to fight for tariffs that will equalize prices of American and foreign made steel.

By BENNETT CERF

THE NEW MAID had been working in a manner of speaking, for two weeks and since she had shown no response to instructions, threats, or cajolery, Mrs. Bach decided to try sarcasm on her. "Do you know, Maymie," she said, "that man was created from dust?" "Yes'm," said Maymie. "And that when people die they turn back into dust?" "Yes'm," said Maymie. "Well," said Mrs. Bach forcefully, "I looked under the parlor rug this morning, Maymie, and there's quite a crowd there either coming or going!"

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Alcohol, apparently, is not a good mixer. The combination of alcohol and automobiles, for example, is definitely known to be dangerous and, all too frequently, a deadly mixture.

It has now been found that alcohol is a particularly bad mixer with any of the sleeping pills that contain barbiturates. Apparently, even a few drinks of rye, Scotch or gin, when followed by a moderate dose of barbiturates, have produced serious illness and even death.

Dr. Elmer V. Dahl, working in conjunction with a biochemist, Jack E. Wallace, at the Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, is investigating the reasons why the effects of alcohol and barbiturates can be so poisonous to man.

They have found that the barbiturates, when taken after alcohol, interfere with the excretion of alcohol from the body, and tend to affect the important centers of the brain that regulate breathing and the heart rate.

The chemical reasons for this dangerous combination are now being studied intensively. Actually, the chemical findings should not alter too much the intelligent person's determination not to try to mix these two un-mixables—alcohol and barbiturates.

Burns are so frequent an occurrence in the daily running of a household that the newer treatment should be constantly emphasized and remembered.

The immediate application of ice or ice-cold water brings rapid relief of pain. In addition, it has been found that ice is beneficial in healing a burned area.

The hand or arm can be immersed in a basin of cold water until there is definite relief from pain. Ice cubes can be added to the water from time to time in order to keep the temperature comfortably cold.

Running cold water over a burned hand is not as effective as immersing it in cold water. The pressure of the running water can itself produce pain as it flows over the burned area.

If an area of the body cannot be easily immersed in the cold water, application of cold,

Essence of Baloney

By John Chamberlain

For two cents, so I am informed by my friends who read Russian, you can get the Soviet newspaper "Pravda" or "Izvestia" delivered to your post-box in the United States from Moscow. It would, so these same friends say, cost you seventy-five cents if you were living in Russia and hankered for the delivery of an American Newspaper.

Some of the two-cent editions of "Pravda" and "Izvestia" bearing on the Panama and Guantanamo crises have just come to hand. I was curious about them, for I had read reports from Moscow that the Soviets, not wishing to throw any road blocks in the way of such mollifying events as the Disarmament talks at Geneva, were playing the U.S. troubles in Panama down. It turns out that this is pure essence of baloney.

I don't read Russian, but I can read a cartoon as well as anybody. The cartoons on the front pages of the Moscow papers are positively ghoulish. One, from "Izvestia" for January 12, depicts a tough American army officer draping a Panamanian flag over seven corpses. In the background there is a ship, presumably moving through the Canal, with a blatant dollar sign on its smokestack. The caption quotes the American military man as saying, "Finally we've found some use for the Panama flag."

Another cartoon, prominently displayed in "Izvestia" for January 15, shows another U.S. soldier, ugly as sin, bestriding the Panama Canal with blood-

spattered feet. He is holding aloft a parody of the American flag. The "stars" on the flag are fudged up to look like a cross-hatch of prison bars. The "stripes" carry such words as "aggression", "occupation", "robbery", "blood suppression" and "violation of independence."

If the cartoons hardly breathe a sweet spirit of "detente" or "relaxation of tensions", the "news" stories are worse. They accuse the Yankees of "executing" Panamanian demonstrators. Alongside the stories designed to whip up emotions about Yankee "imperialism" there are editorials and news features attesting to the Soviet preference for gentility in its treatment of its own neighbors. There is a gusher about "two canals." One, the Panama Canal, is run by thugs. The other, a canal connecting the Soviet Union with Finland, is an idyllic waterway, just the place for honeymooners and such.

As for Guantanamo and Castro, there is the front page of "Izvestia" for February 8. It calls the detention of the Cuban fishermen for moving into Florida coastal waters an act of "Piracy". The cartoon is a wonder. The "pirate" depicted therein would make Captain Kidd or Blackbeard cringe and cry "Mama". Now, none of this is exactly surprising to anyone who has followed the course of events since the Bolshevik Revolution of 1918. What is surprising is that the Soviets can get away with propagating the idea in America that they have decided to be nice to us.

Moreover, it is a truly strange thing that they are willing to mail "Pravda" and "Izvestia" to America so cheaply when they are putting on that Potemkin Village show of "detente" and "relaxation of tensions".

Another bit which I culled, by way of a translator-friend, from a Moscow publication is that the U.S. pays most of the cost of the famous "hot wire." The Soviets pay the rent for the Moscow-Helsinki link in the cable, and 50 per cent of the rent for the Helsinki-London link. The U.S. pays entirely for the Washington-London span, and half of the rent for the link between London and Finland.

Measure this out on a map, and see who is most eager for the "hot wire". And then pray that the Russians won't use the wire to our disadvantage, meanwhile making us foot most of the bill.

Oil Boom May Swamp State Agency

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's oil boom threatens to swamp the 38-member staff of the State Division of Mines, Chief J. Lester Zimmerman says.

New oil drilling permit requests are coming in at a rate of more than 100 a week, Zimmerman noted.

And there have been such emergency requests as the one from Ohio University, where discovery of an old oil well has halted construction on a new student dormitory.

Zimmerman sent his assistant chief, J. C. Wilson, to Athens to make sure the campus well is sealed off properly.

Other matters before Zimmerman—whose division is part of the State Industrial Relations Department—include:

A report that Gov. James A. Rhodes plans to declare an emergency to make new state drilling regulations effective 60 days earlier than planned, March 10.

The need to complete drafting these safety and conservation regulations, authorized by the legislature in December.

Concern by public officials, such as Franklin County's commissioners, who have asked for briefings on state regulations of drilling. Franklin County is one of the latest involved in the boom, and a reported 27,000 acres are under oil lease.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

Under cloudy skies Monday night, temperatures over Ohio were 10 to 20 degrees warmer than those of 24 hours earlier.

Some early morning readings around the state were Columbus 25, Dayton and Cincinnati 32, Toledo 23, Youngstown 22 and Zanesville 24.

A low pressure system moving eastward through the Southern states was expected to produce some light rain as far northward as Ohio during this afternoon and evening.

A return to slightly cooler temperatures was predicted for tonight and Wednesday.

Scattered light snow flurries may occur over Central and Northern Ohio tonight and in Northeast Ohio Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Moore, general chairman of "High Fever Follies" to be presented Mar. 20-21 by the General Guild of Berger Hospital, has announced that committees for the event have been completed and that all chairmen are "pleased and excited" about the general reception their production has received.

Cigarette Tax Take Still Declines

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio cigarette tax collections have declined for the third consecutive week, State Treasurer John D. Herbert reported Monday.

Receipts for the week ended Feb. 14 skidded $290,148 below the comparable 1963 period, a drop of 23 per cent, figures showed.

For the three-week period ended Feb. 14, the decline totaled $863,573, or 22 per cent, under the comparable period a year ago.

The drop since the federal health report on Jan. 11 was $798,716, or 13 per cent, under the same period a year ago, the report showed.

Herbert explained that receipts increased during the first week after the government report.

Total receipts for the state bookkeeping period that started last July 1 still are ahead of the same period a year ago, Herbert noted. The state collected just over $42 million for the first 33 weeks of the fiscal year compared with nearly $41.7 million a year earlier.

"Generally speaking," Herbert said, "we expect the current losses to be short-term and anticipate a slight increase in revenue by the end of the current fiscal year."

Ohio has a total state tax of five cents a pack on cigarettes.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has decided to cure a kind of national paralysis in which politicians wouldn't budge to give voters fairer representation in Congress and state legislatures.

For years the court was too timorous to do this. It said it didn't want to butt into the political field. It took its first big step two years ago, another Monday.

First it tangled with state legislatures and now with Congress. Congressional districts, like state legislatures' districts, have been lopsided for generations.

One district with 500,000 people might have only one representative in Congress, or a state legislature, while another with only half that many people might have just as much representation.

This has worked to the advantage of the rural population, to the disadvantage of the growing cities.

Forty state constitutions required regular redistricting every 10 years or oftener to give voters in all sections more equal representation. But for generations some state legislatures ignored their own constitutions.

Congress has looked the other way on this question of equal representation in districts electing members of the House. The Senate is not involved. Every state, big or small, is entitled to two senators.

Does a court have the right to interfere with the way Congress or a legislature provides for election of its members? State and federal courts skipped around the edges of this for years.

A famous test came to the Supreme Court in 1946 — a case from Illinois—where populations of districts varied from 138,000 to 839,000. But the court wouldn't tell the legislature to redistrict.

This is a "political thicket," the then Justice Felix Frankfurter said, backing away. He suggested the remedy for unfairness in districting is to get the state legislature to do it. This was ducking the issue.

By this reasoning the problem would probably have remained unsolved a few more generations for a very simple reason.

If the far outnumbered rural population of a state dominated a state legislature—to the disadvantage of the much bigger city populations—they weren't going to let the arrangement be changed.

Two years ago the Supreme Court reversed the reasoning of 1946—in a case from Tennessee—by deciding lower federal courts may decide whether city voters are unconstitutionally discriminated against in the apportionment of legislative seats.

In Tennessee the state constitution required reapportionment every 10 years because of population shifts but there had been none since 1901.

This decision was a political shocker. It did more to stir state legislatures than anything in history in the voting field. Since then about 35 states, under the spur of the decision and the drive of cities and suburbs have taken some steps to redistrict. But this is a slow, painful road.

Then Monday the court said congressional districts in the states — it was just talking of Georgia but the ruling applies generally—must be arranged to give "equal representation for equal numbers of people" so far as practicable.

The court has set down no exact measuring stick for populations in a district. It said districting must be fair by population. It relied on the Constitution for its authority, of course, citing those sections which speak of apportionment by numbers and give protections to citizens' rights.

Now Congress at last may try not only to set up standards for districts but for congressional enforcement of the standards. If state legislatures balked, citizens could sue in federal courts.

The court, through injunction, could forbid congressional elections by districts in states guilty of malapportioned districts and order candidates for Congress to run at large until there was redistricting.

His decision was a political shocker. It did more to stir state legislatures than anything in history in the voting field. Since then about 35 states, under the spur of the decision and the drive of cities and suburbs have taken some steps to redistrict. But this is a slow, painful road.

U.S. Desalting Knowledge Due To Pay Off at Gitmo

WASHINGTON (AP)—Knowledge regarding desalting of sea water gained by this country since 1952 will pay off as the United States moves to make self-sustaining its naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

The Navy has turned to the Interior Department to obtain a desalting plant which was designed to produce one million gallons a day but has been working so successfully at San Diego, Calif., that its output has been running 1.4 million gallons daily.

This is regarded by government officials as only a forerunner of what is to come as they talk of cooperative studies with foreign countries for plants with output ranging from 50 million to as much as 300 million gallons per day.

Such plants are conceived of as combination electric power generation and desalting plants, possibly using nuclear fuel.

Under the plan for Guantanamo, Interior officials said the Navy will provide reimbursement so that a replacement plant can be provided at San Diego. Both San Diego and the State of California assisted in financing the plant.

This plant and three other demonstration plants were constructed by the Interior Department under a research program begun in 1952.

Interior statistics show that in 1952 cost of converted sea water varied from about $4 to $5 a thousand gallons. Now it is down to $1 to $1.50.

Undersecretary of the Interior James K. Carr said in an interview today that "as an outgrowth of our program a desalting plant is operating in the Virgin Islands which was designed with rated capacity of 275,000 gallons of fresh water daily but which has operated for extended periods with a production running 325,000 gallons a day.

"The San Diego demonstration plant, along with the other demonstration plants at Freeport, Tex.; Webster, S.D.; and Roswell, N.M., are proving on a practical basis what can be done with certain processes.

"The basic problem to the known processes is one of low cost energy. We have been working closely during the last year with the Atomic Energy Commission and the Joint Atomic Energy Committee of the Congress on possible use of nuclear power to desalt sea water."

Primary attention is centered on a desalting project that would supply Key West, Fla., with fresh water instead of transporting it 140 miles by pipeline from wells near Florida City.

A preliminary appraisal indicated a combination power plant and desalting plant, with capacity of about six to eight million gallons a day, would be economically feasible. The possibility of using nuclear fuel is being vigorously explored.

3 Petitions Filed To Assist Dr. Sam

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The legal machinery preliminary to deciding whether Dr. Sam Sheppard gets a new trial continues to turn in U.S. District Court here.

Four pre-trial petitions were ordered by the court last month and three already have been filed. The court's order said that, following receipt of the fourth petition, a date will be set for filing of motions and oral arguments.

In its request for a new trial for Sheppard, convicted of second-degree murder in the 1954 death of his wife, the defense claims that undue publicity and certain legal technicalities violated Sheppard's constitutional rights.

Convicted Bank Thug Is Awaiting Sentence

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—U.S. District Court here has postponed the sentencing of George E. Obrist Jr. on seven counts of bank robbery until at least next week. It was scheduled Monday.

Springfield Officials OK Water Fluoridation

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Springfield's water supply soon will contain fluoride, reputed inhibitor of tooth decay, unless the improbably develops. The City Commission, by a 3-2 vote, Monday night approved an ordinance calling for use of the chemical and it becomes effective in 30 days unless opponents overturn it by popular referendum.

Observers doubt that the opponents, who immediately promised to try, can get by next month the 4,300 signatures required to put a referendum on the ballot.

By this reasoning the problem would probably have remained unsolved a few more generations for a very simple reason.

If the far outnumbered rural population of a state dominated a state legislature—to the disadvantage of the much bigger city populations—they weren't going to let the arrangement be changed.

Two years ago the Supreme Court reversed the reasoning of 1946—in a case from Tennessee—by deciding lower federal courts may decide whether city voters are unconstitutionally discriminated against in the apportionment of legislative seats.

In Tennessee the state constitution required reapportionment every 10 years because of population shifts but there had been none since 1901.

This decision was a political shocker. It did more to stir state legislatures than anything in history in the voting field. Since then about 35 states, under the spur of the decision and the drive of cities and suburbs have taken some steps to redistrict. But this is a slow, painful road.

Then Monday the court said congressional districts in the states — it was just talking of Georgia but the ruling applies generally—must be arranged to give "equal representation for equal numbers of people" so far as practicable.

The court has set down no exact measuring stick for populations in a district. It said districting must be fair by population. It relied on the Constitution for its authority, of course, citing those sections which speak of apportionment by numbers and give protections to citizens' rights.

Now Congress at last may try not only to set up standards for districts but for congressional enforcement of the standards. If state legislatures balked, citizens could sue in federal courts.

The court, through injunction, could forbid congressional elections by districts in states guilty of malapportioned districts and order candidates for Congress to run at large until there was redistricting.

U.S. Desalting Knowledge Due To Pay Off at Gitmo

WASHINGTON (AP)—Knowledge regarding desalting of sea water gained by this country since 1952 will pay off as the United States moves to make self-sustaining its naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba.

The Navy has turned to the Interior Department to obtain a desalting plant which was designed to produce one million gallons a day but has been working so successfully at San Diego, Calif., that its output has been running 1.4 million gallons daily.

This is regarded by government officials as only a forerunner of what is to come as they talk of cooperative studies with foreign countries for plants with output ranging from 50 million to as much as 300 million gallons per day.

Such plants are conceived of as combination electric power generation and desalting plants, possibly using nuclear fuel.

Under the plan for Guantanamo, Interior officials said the Navy will provide reimbursement so that a replacement plant can be provided at San Diego. Both San Diego and the State of California assisted in financing the plant.

This plant and three other demonstration plants were constructed by the Interior Department under a research program begun in 1952.

Interior statistics show that in 1952 cost of converted sea water varied from about $4 to $5 a thousand gallons. Now it is down to $1 to $1.50.

Undersecretary of the Interior James K. Carr said in an interview today that "as an outgrowth of our program a desalting plant is operating in the Virgin Islands which was designed with rated capacity of 275,000 gallons of fresh water daily but which has operated for extended periods with production running 325,000 gallons a day."

"The San Diego demonstration plant, along with the other demonstration plants at Freeport, Tex.; Webster, S.D.; and Roswell, N.M., are proving on a practical basis what can be done with certain processes."

"The basic problem of the known processes is one of low cost energy. We have been working closely during the last year with the Atomic Energy Commission and the Joint Atomic Energy Committee of the Congress on possible use of nuclear power to desalt sea water."

Primary attention is centered on a desalting project that would supply Key West, Fla., with fresh water instead of transporting it 140 miles by pipeline from wells near Florida City.

A preliminary appraisal indicated a combination power plant and desalting plant, with capacity of about six to eight million gallons a day, would be economically feasible. The possibility of using nuclear fuel is being vigorously explored.

3 Petitions Filed To Assist Dr. Sam

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The legal machinery preliminary to deciding whether Dr. Sam Shepard gets a new trial continues to turn in U.S. District Court here.

Four pre-trial petitions were ordered by the court last month and three already have been filed. The court's order said that, following receipt of the fourth petition, a date will be set for filing of motions and oral arguments.

In its request for a new trial for Shepard, convicted of second-degree murder in the 1954 death of his wife, the defense claims that undue publicity and certain legal technicalities violated Shepard's constitutional rights.

Convicted Bank Thug Is Awaiting Sentence

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—U.S. District Court here has postponed the sentencing of George E. Obrist Jr. on seven counts of bank robbery until at least next week. It was scheduled Monday.

Obrist, 34, of Bellbrook, who pleaded guilty to the robberies, probably will be sentenced next Tuesday when the court takes up criminal proceedings, the Clerk's Office said.

Northwestern South America, one of the first New World regions explored by Spanish colonizers, still contains vast areas that are virtually unknown to outsiders.

Dear Abby: by Abigail Van Buren

Unforgettable Man Sought

DEAR ABBY: You are my last hope. I am still looking for a man I met in LaCrosse, Wisconsin, during World War II. We only spent one evening together, but it was the most wonderful evening of my life. All I know is that he had "HERB" tattooed on him and he's from Sioux Falls, South Dakota. I thank you.

CAN'T FORGET HIM
 DEAR ABBY: He went that way.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married soon and I want a small, dignified wedding. I want to wear a suit and have selected a beautiful black suit; but everybody I mention it to tells me I shouldn't wear black because it isn't "proper." Who made up that rule? I realize that black is an unusual choice for a wedding outfit, but I look better in black than I do in colors (I am a silver blonde). Would it be terribly wrong to wear black? If other people can get married on horseback and under water, why can't I be married in black?

DEAR ABBY: This is for Gordy's wife, who made excuses to her friends for the "strange looking designs" on her walls, instead of admitting that her husband threw food around when he got mad. She said he threw a "potato fit" and tossed the creamed potatoes at her. My husband used to throw fits like that, too. He thought, because I came from a strict Catholic family and was taught that marriage was a cross I would have to carry until death do us part, that I would never leave him. But because I had to carry the cross didn't mean I had to let him crucify me on it. Well, he threw a kettle of hot chili at me. I called a witness and had him committed. Thank you.

OSU Retains Its Hope for Big Ten Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Habits are hard to shake. And Ohio State has the Big Ten basketball championship habit—but it's Michigan that has to do the shaking.

The Wolverines must shake off the relentless pursuit of the surging Buckeyes.

Given up for lost after a 5-5 nonconference record and a 3-2 conference start, the Buckeyes made Iowa their fifth straight Big Ten victim Monday night, 99-82.

That puts the utmost pressure on Michigan, now looking a little less like a shoo-in for an unshared crown, as the Wolverines wake the court against third place Minnesota tonight in Minneapolis.

Ohio State is now 8-2 with four conference games left, while Michigan is just a half-game up at 8-1 and could fall into a tie with the Bucks should Minnesota (6-3) halt the Wolverines. Ohio is after a piece of its fifth straight title.

Gary Bradds had 30 points Monday night, the first time in the last six games the All-American scored under 40.

Ohio led 54-43 at the half and stayed at least eight points ahead thereafter. Jimmy Rodgers' 25 markers paced Iowa, now 2-6 in the league.

In other games involving Ohio schools, Toledo's disintegrating Rockets absorbed a 98-66 butchering at Duquesne, Akron (15-6) whipped Ashland 76-59, and Steubenville (12-7) trimmed St. Vincent at Latrobe, Pa., 68-62.

Roger Staubach of Navy completed 104 passes in 157 attempts during the football season.

Vikings Will Take Perfect Record Into Tourney Play

Teays Valley High School is the next local basketball team scheduled to appear in tournament competition.

The Vikings will travel to the State Fairgrounds Coliseum to meet Walnut Ridge of Columbus.

Walnut Ridge is taking a 3-13 record into the tournament. The Vikings are the lone undefeated team in the Central District Class AA event this year. Playing an independent schedule this year, the Vikings have defeated Hamilton Twp. two times, Reynoldsburg, Circleville, Miami Trace, Lakewood, Greenfield, Amanda, Madison South, Sabina, Pleasant View, Washington C. H., Williamsport, Fairfield Union, Logan Elm and an Alumni team.

ALL FIVE starters on the Teays Valley team have been averaging in double figures for the season.

Bill Fortner, 6-4 center, is the leading scorer with 246 points for an average of 16.4 per game. His highest effort is 29 points against Lakewood, while Logan Elm held him to a scant five points in his last outing.

Dave Roese is the second leading scorer. The rugged Teays Valley guard has poured in 214 points in 16 games for an average of 13.4 per game. His best effort was 25 points against Madison South while in the opener against Hamilton Twp. he scored only five.

Bob Kuhlwein, the lone senior on the Teays Valley starting five, has totaled 205 points in the 16 games in which he has appeared for an average of 12.8. His best effort was a 31-point production in the season's opener, while against Fairfield Union he scored one.

Doug Mallory, the other half of the Viking guard duo, is hitting the bucket at a clip of 11.4 points per game for a total of 182 markers. His best effort was 23 points against Logan Elm.

Mitchell Clay, a deceptive rebounder for the Vikings, has 171 points for an average of 10.7 per game. His best showing was 17 points against Circleville, while his lowest effort was three against Hamilton Twp. in the tenth game of the year.

IN MIKE SEYMOUR, the Vikings have one of the best sixth men in the district. He has scored 93 points and has appeared in relief in every game the Vikings have played. Against Greenfield he notched 19 markers.

Walnut Ridge at 3-13 has scored 947 points in 16 games while opposing teams have tallied 1,041.

A member of the Columbus City League, the squad finished 11th in the standings.

However, Viking coach Russ Gregg feels WR record is misleading. Gregg said he has been told the team is probably the most improved unit in the league.

The Vikings and their opponents have played one common foe in Miami Trace. Both teams defeated Trace.

Probably the two best players on the team are Jim Grosshart, a 6-2 forward, and Skip Leonard, a 6-foot guard. They are coached by former East High School mentor, Jack Moore.

ON DEFENSE Columbusans use both a man-to-man and a zone, while offensively they utilize a controlled pattern style of play.

As Gregg has already pointed out to his cagers, both Walnut Ridge and Teays Valley are "undefeated in tournament play". He is anticipating a real tough ball game.

NEW YORK (AP)—Eddie Cotton, the top-ranking light heavyweight contender, is risking his hopes of a final title shot when he takes on young, hungry and undefeated Johnny Persol of New York in a television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

Why is he taking the gamble? "I've been fighting 16 years and I've never fought in the Garden," said Cotton, a 36-year-old boxing globetrotter who doubles as a toolmaker for the Boeing plane factory in Seattle. "The Garden is it in boxing and I wanted to fight there before I call it quits."

Big O, Smith Lead Royals To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Oscar Robertson, who doesn't seem to need much help, got some from a guy named Smith Monday night and the Cincinnati Royals made the San Francisco Warriors their 12th straight National Basketball Association patsies.

Adrian Smith came off the Royals' bench to assist the assist-master as Cincy ran away from the Warriors 129-113 at Cleveland, thereby cutting Boston's Eastern Division lead to 1 1/2 games.

In the only other NBA game played, Baltimore employed a zone defense and a public relations campaign against St. Louis but the Hawks' late drive dumped the Bullets 115-110.

Smith's 16 points abetted Robby's 45 to offset the Warriors' Wilt Chamberlain, who poured in 52. The Royals' backcourt combination clicked for 22 assists—10 by Smith—as Cincinnati raced past the Warriors in the third quarter. When San Francisco closed to 86-84, Smith triggered a series of fast-break baskets that put the Royals out of reach.

GOING STRONG ON TWO LEGS—At an age when many old dogs are thinking of retirement, 13-year-old Shep is going strong on two legs. A pet of Margaret Johnsrude, Soldiers Grove, Wis., Shep lost one leg in a shooting accident and another in a dog fight. However, he still chases pigs, cats and neighborhood dogs. But, says Margaret, he is notably gentle with one neighborhood cat—a cripple like himself.

Providence OKs Its First Bid to NCAA

Friars Turn Down NIT for Berth in National Tourney

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

And just why did Providence, the National Invitation Tournament defending champion, turn down a bid by the NIT and accept one from the National Collegiate Athletic Association?

Well, athletic director, the Rev. A. B. Begley candidly pointed out, "It's the first time we had a chance to accept." Which means it's the first time the NCAA had ever picked Providence to fill one of the 10 at-large spots in its national tournament.

"We accepted the NCAA invitation," Begley said, "because we belong to the NCAA and it's our association championship."

The Friars, who had some early season uneasiness but now appear to have found the formula, were one of nine teams picked by the NCAA. Three more accepted bids to the NIT Monday as the two groups began their selections.

In addition to Providence, the NCAA selected defending champion Chicago Loyola, Villanova, Creighton, Texas Western, Louisville, Oregon State, Utah State and Seattle.

One more NCAA at-large team remains to be picked for the long string of eliminations that culminate in the national tournament at Kansas City March 20-21. The other 15 spots go to conference champions.

The NIT, which will be played in New York's Madison Square Garden March 12-21, picked DePaul, 16-2; Pitt, 14-6; and New York University, 11-5. Nine others will be selected later.

Providence, 17-3 after Monday night's 95-75 triumph over Scranton, and Villanova, ranked fifth nationally at 19-2, are in the NCAA Eastern regional along with Temple, Middle Atlantic champion, and the champions of the Yankee, Southern, Ivy and Atlantic Coast conferences.

Loyola, 15-5, and Louisville, 14-6, are in the Midwest with the conference champs from the Mid America, Ohio Valley, Southeastern and Big Ten.

The Midwest has Creighton, 19-5, Texas Western, 19-2, and winners from the Southwest, Missouri Valley, Big Eight and one more at-large team to be named.

The Far West has Oregon State, 21-3, Utah State, 17-3, Seattle, 16-4, and winners from the Western Athletic Conference, the Big Six and the West Coast Conference.

Regional first-round eliminations will be held in Philadelphia, Evanston, Ill., Dallas and Eugene, Ore. Teams with first-round byes are the champs from the Atlantic Coast, the Big Eight, the Southeastern, the Big Ten, the West Coast and the Big Six.

Regional championships are scheduled March 13-14 in Raleigh, N.C., Minneapolis, Wichita, Kan., and Corvallis, Ore.

Providence, which won only four of its first seven, celebrated its selection with its 13th straight triumph in the decision over Scranton. John Thompson and Jim Stone each had 25 points for the rampaging Friars who were never in serious trouble.

Probably the top attraction was Kentucky's 104-73 home triumph over Vanderbilt. Cotton Nash played one of the finest games of his career in sparking the victory that put the Wildcats in sole possession of first place with a 9-2 Southeastern record. Kentucky, ranked third in the nation, is 19-2 over-all.

Nash scored 32 points, stole the ball a dozen times, played a fine defensive game and controlled the offensive rebounds.

Duke Snider holds the record for most home runs hit in World Series games in Ebbets Field Brooklyn. In 17 series game there he hit seven homers.

Dayton, Zaneville Fives Voted AA and A Titles

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The regular-season jockeying is out of the way, and Ohio's high school basketballers head into tournament play this week on an all-even basis.

Pre-tourney records go into the discard as the "lose-and-out" series starts. The big prizes will be decided March 21 at Ohio State's St. John Arena when the 1964 state champs are crowned.

Ohio's sports editors named their favorites today — Dayton Belmont in Class AA and Zaneville Rosecrans in Class A—as The Associated Press compiled its final poll. Forty-four sports editors voted in the final week's ratings.

Rosecrans, with an 18-game winning streak and victorious in its last 56 regular-season frays, eased past Celina Immaculate Conception in the final Class A rankings by a single eighth-place vote. The Celina team (19-1) had led all year.

Only change in the Class A Top Ten personnel came as Columbus University replaced Lakeside in 10th place despite the latter's 102-64 conquest over Woodville for a 15-1 record. University (17-1) made its first appearance in the select list by a single poll point over the upstate quintet.

The Class A list was jumbled in the late going, the Top Ten winding up as a Top Eleven as Cleveland East Tech and Toledo Woodward tied for last place. Newark, Cleveland East and Akron North fell from the top group, and Cleveland Rhodes, Portsmouth, Toledo Woodward and Middletown's five-time losers moved in.

Youngstown Liberty, which reached the state Class A meet a few years ago, is now in Class AA and compiled the first unbeaten season in its history. Southeastern of Ross County, fifth in Class A, needed a double overtime to subdue Huntington 79-74 for its 19th straight.

Newark lost its opener, won 15 straight, then fell 65-54 before Chillicothe. Coach, Mike Morrison of Racine, down on the Ohio River, has a 39-1 record for his two-year effort. His unbeaten team reached the district finals a year ago—and it is 18-0 this time. Athens, fifth in Class AA, boasts its first clean season (18-0) in history. Charles McAfee is the Athens mentor.

A week ago Cleveland Rhodes and Portsmouth were not in the Top Ten. Then Rhodes belted Cleveland East 67-57 for the city championship and leaped all the way to fourth place with a 17-0 record. And Portsmouth, although a 59-56 loser to Dayton Fairview for its third loss in 16 games, breezed into eighth place.

Coach Carl Alan Hamill, who led Fort Frye to the state tourney's Class A semifinals in 1962, may be back. His boys have an 18-0 record, the second clean mark in three seasons. Hamill's dad coached championship football, basketball and baseball teams at Weirton, W.Va., and is in that state's sports hall of fame.

Shown here are the first-place votes in parentheses, the poll points on a 10-9-8-etc. basis, and the win-loss records of the leaders.

Providence OKs Its First Bid to NCAA

Friars Turn Down NIT for Berth in National Tourney

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

And just why did Providence, the National Invitation Tournament defending champion, turn down a bid by the NIT and accept one from the National Collegiate Athletic Association?

Well, athletic director, the Rev. A. B. Begley candidly pointed out, "It's the first time we had a chance to accept." Which means it's the first time the NCAA had ever picked Providence to fill one of the 10 at-large spots in its national tournament.

"We accepted the NCAA invitation," Begley said, "because we belong to the NCAA and it's our association championship."

The Friars, who had some early season uneasiness but now appear to have found the formula, were one of nine teams picked by the NCAA. Three more accepted bids to the NIT Monday as the two groups began their selections.

In addition to Providence, the NCAA selected defending champion Chicago Loyola, Villanova, Creighton, Texas Western, Louisville, Oregon State, Utah State and Seattle.

One more NCAA at-large team remains to be picked for the long string of eliminations that culminate in the national tournament at Kansas City March 20-21. The other 15 spots go to conference champions.

The NIT, which will be played in New York's Madison Square Garden March 12-21, picked DePaul, 16-2; Pitt, 14-6; and New York University, 11-5. Nine others will be selected later.

Providence, 17-3 after Monday night's 95-75 triumph over Scranton, and Villanova, ranked fifth nationally at 19-2, are in the NCAA Eastern regional along with Temple, Middle Atlantic champion, and the champions of the Yankee, Southern, Ivy and Atlantic Coast conferences.

Loyola, 15-5, and Louisville, 14-6, are in the Midwest with the conference champs from the Mid America, Ohio Valley, Southeastern and Big Ten.

The Midwest has Creighton, 19-5, Texas Western, 19-2, and winners from the Southwest, Missouri Valley, Big Eight and one more at-large team to be named.

The Far West has Oregon State, 21-3, Utah State, 17-3, Seattle, 18-4, and winners from the Western Athletic Conference, the Big Six and the West Coast Conference.

Regional first-round eliminations will be held in Philadelphia, Evanston, Ill., Dallas and Eugene, Ore. Teams with first-round byes are the champs from the Atlantic Coast, the Big Eight, the Southeastern, the Big Ten, the West Coast and the Big Six.

Regional championships are scheduled March 13-14 in Raleigh, N.C., Minneapolis, Wichita, Kan., and Corvallis, Ore.

Providence, which won only four of its first seven, celebrated its selection with its 13th straight triumph in the decision over Scranton. John Thompson and Jim Stone each had 25 points for the rampaging Friars who were never in serious trouble.

Probably the top attraction was Kentucky's 104-73 home triumph over Vanderbilt. Cotton Nash played one of the finest games of his career in sparking the victory that put the Wildcats in sole possession of first place with a 9-2 Southeastern record. Kentucky, ranked third in the nation, is 19-2 over-all.

Nash scored 32 points, stole the ball a dozen times, played a fine defensive game and controlled the offensive rebounds.

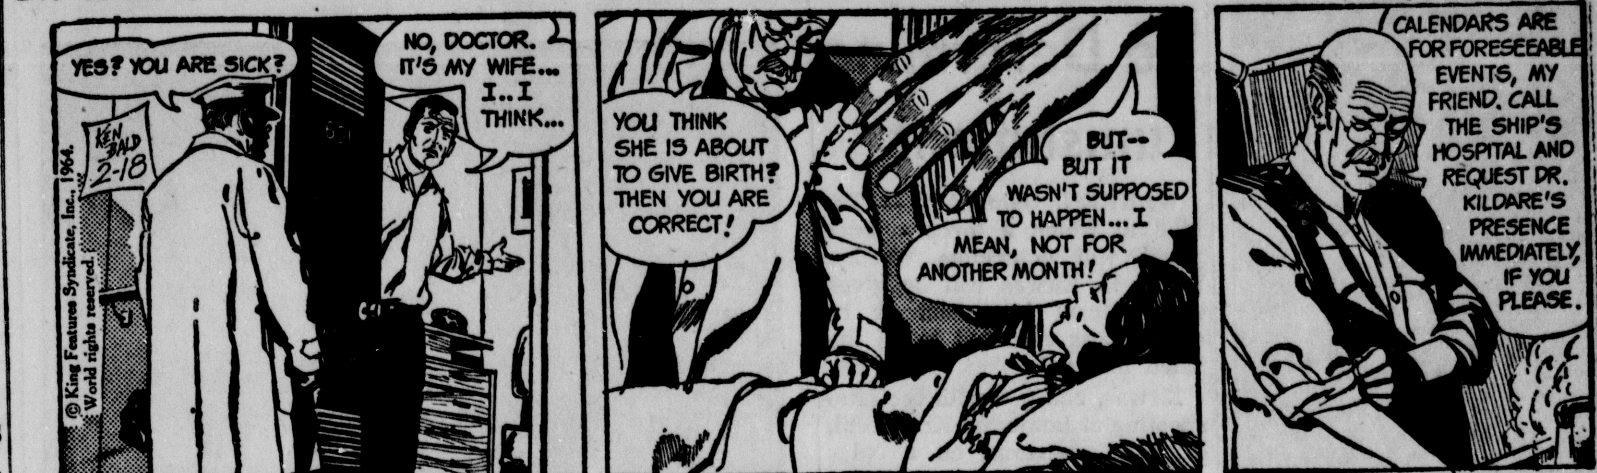

Duke Snider holds the record for most home runs hit in World Series games in Ebbets Field Brooklyn. In 17 series game there he hit seven homers.

3 Judges Set To Determine Punishment

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — The trial at which a three-judge panel will determine whether David H. Zirwas will be given a life term in prison or be executed is expected to be finished today.

Zirwas, charged with the fatal shooting of Benjamin Krawiecki, 42, of Youngstown on a Niles street last September, pleaded guilty to first-degree murder Monday as his trial was about to start before Common Pleas Court Judge G. H. Birrell. He previously had pleaded innocent by reason of insanity.

The panel of prospective jurors was sent home after Zirwas changed his plea and the three-judge panel began hearing testimony to determine the degree of guilt. With Judge Birrell on the panel are Judges William M. McLain and Bruce P. Henderson.

Zirwas, 28, of Girard took the stand before the three judges and admitted shooting Krawiecki. But he said he didn't intend to shoot him, just scare him. He said that somehow the gun went off.

Zirwas was captured at Las Vegas, Nev., seven days after the Niles shooting. He was accused of shooting Terry Houck, 16-year-old hitchhiker from Independence, Mo., in Nevada.

Defunct Lima Paper Is Sued

$20 Million Claim Is Filed by News

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A $20 million cross-complaint has been filed in U. S. District Court here by Freedom Newspapers, Inc., of Lima against the corporation owning the defunct Lima Citizen. The plaintiff is publisher of the Lima News.

The Citizen sued Freedom Newspapers for $7,875,000 last fall, alleging violations of the Sherman and Clayton antitrust laws. The Citizen was bought by Freedom Newspapers last month, but its lawsuit remained alive. The corporation owning the Citizen continues.

In its suit filed Monday, Freedom Newspapers alleges that the Citizen and its top management damaged the News to the extent of $5.6 million in the last four years.

It arrived at the $20 million requested by adding the $1,262,000 sale price of the Citizen to the $5.6 million damage estimate and asking triple damages.

Named co-defendants in the cross-complaint were the Citizen, its co-publishers, Sam Kamin and J. S. Howenstein; its business manager, Wayne Current, and the editor, Robert C. Barton.

Also made parties were the International Typographical Union and 35 unnamed individuals who were charged with conspiring to force the News to lose money and attempt to make it go out of business.

J. Craig Wright, attorney for the Citizen, said in Lima that the cross-complaint "is a rather ambitious retaliatory measure."

Retail Panel Will Discuss DE Program

Members of the Retail Merchants Committee Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce, will meet Thursday to discuss possibilities of a Distributive Education Program here.

The session will convene 8 a. m. at Boyer's Restaurant. All retailers are invited, committee chairman Charles Schieber announced.

The Circleville Board of Education made a study of the program at its regular meeting last week. The plan is designed primarily for the benefit of high school seniors. It trains these students on a part-time basis for careers in retailing, wholesaling and service occupations.

According to the proposed vocational program, student trainees attend school part-time and also receive supervised work experience under actual working conditions. The actual work period calls for a minimum of 15 hours per week for which participants are paid.

Barry Heads Back to New Hampshire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater returns to New Hampshire today to begin a busy week of campaigning for the state's March 10 Republican presidential primary.

Goldwater planned to visit 19 communities over the next three days. He returns to New Hampshire for a single day of campaigning Saturday—his last visit to the Granite State before he starts his week-long final drive on March 2.

The Arizona senator's chief announced rival in the New Hampshire balloting — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—planned a news conference in Albany, N.Y., today.

Rockefeller goes to New Hampshire Wednesday for three days on the campaign trail.

In other developments: Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., said during an interview at Lincoln, Neb., that he doubted either Goldwater or Rockefeller would be the GOP nominee. "As of this moment, the most logical candidate" is former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Douglas said. But he added he felt Henry Cabot Lodge would be the "strongest" candidate.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., plugged Rockefeller's candidacy in Detroit and said the GOP must adopt "progressive policies" and nominate a "progressive candidate."

Ousted State Aide Seeks Restoration

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Suit has been filed demanding that 52 former state attorneys-examiner be restored to the posts in the Ohio Highway Department from which they were ousted a year ago.

Proceedings for a writ of mandamus to compel the administration of Gov. James A. Rhodes to put the 52 back on the payroll were instituted in the 10th District (Franklin County) Court of Appeals Monday.

Bringing the suit was Joseph D. Bryan of Columbus, one of the former attorneys-examiner and presently seeking the Democratic nomination to oppose incumbent Judge C. William O'Neill for an Ohio Supreme Court judgeship.

Bryan says the Republican administration used "sham and subterfuge" when it abolished the attorney-examiner positions he says were classified under civil service. He says the administration filled the posts with political appointees designated assistant attorneys-general and assigned to the Highway Department.

Defunct Lima Paper Is Sued

$20 Million Claim Is Filed by News

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A $20 million cross-complaint has been filed in U. S. District Court here by Freedom Newspapers, Inc., of Lima against the corporation owning the defunct Lima Citizen. The plaintiff is publisher of the Lima News.

The Citizen sued Freedom Newspapers for $7,875,000 last fall, alleging violations of the Sherman and Clayton antitrust laws. The Citizen was bought by Freedom Newspapers last month, but its lawsuit remained alive. The corporation owning the Citizen continues.

In its suit filed Monday, Freedom Newspapers alleges that the Citizen and its top management damaged the News to the extent of $5.6 million in the last four years.

It arrived at the $20 million requested by adding the $1,262,000 sale price of the Citizen to the $5.6 million damage estimate and asking triple damages.

Named co-defendants in the cross-complaint were the Citizen, its co-publishers, Sam Kamin and J. S. Howenstine; its business manager, Wayne Current, and the editor, Robert C. Barton.

Also made parties were the International Typographical Union and 35 unnamed individuals who were charged with conspiring to force the News to lose money and attempt to make it go out of business.

J. Craig Wright, attorney for the Citizen, said in Lima that the cross-complaint "is a rather ambitious retaliatory measure."

Retail Panel Will Discuss DE Program

Members of the Retail Merchants Committee Circleville Area Chamber of Commerce, will meet Thursday to discuss possibilities of a Distributive Education Program here.

The session will convene 8 a. m. at Boyer's Restaurant. All retailers are invited, committee chairman Charles Schiebler announced.

The panel will meet with Fritz Jacobs, superintendent of city schools. He will outline the Distributive Education Program and comment on various requirements and functions in putting the plan into operation.

The Circleville Board of Education made a study of the program at its regular meeting last week. The plan is designed primarily for the benefit of high school seniors. It trains these students on a part-time basis for careers in retailing, wholesaling and service occupations.

According to the proposed vocational program, student trainees attend school part-time and also receive supervised work experience under actual working conditions. The actual work period calls for a minimum of 15 hours per week for which participants are paid.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater returns to New Hampshire today to begin a busy week of campaigning for the state's March 10 Republican presidential primary.

Goldwater planned to visit 19 communities over the next three days. He returns to New Hampshire for a single day of campaigning Saturday—his last visit to the Granite State before he starts his week-long final drive on March 2.

The Arizona senator's chief announced rival in the New Hampshire balloting — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—planned a news conference in Albany, N.Y., today.

Rockefeller goes to New Hampshire Wednesday for three days on the campaign trail.

In other developments: Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., said during an interview at Lincoln, Neb., that he doubted either Goldwater or Rockefeller would be the GOP nominee. "As of this moment, the most logical candidate" is former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Douglas said. But he added he felt Henry Cabot Lodge would be the "strongest" candidate.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., plugged Rockefeller's candidacy in Detroit and said the GOP must adopt "progressive policies" and nominate a "progressive" candidate.
